FARMERS MEET AT DAWSON

This Week—Men Prominent in Agricultural Work on Program

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

There seem to be considerable interest aroused in the farmers' meeting at Dawson. There will doubtless be a large crowd gathered there each day to discuss general farm problems and hear the splendid corps of speakers who will address these audiences.

Two more speakers have been added to the list and some of our local men will take part in the discussion. The idea of the gathering in not a set program with much formality, but a gathering of farmers where each one can have a chance to work out his individual problems. The speakers of the day will only open up the way with their remarks, then it is up to us to put the question to him if he fails to make things plain.

The idea of this meeting with its large number of speakers is to give each man a chance to talk personally with some of the speakers who deal with the problems which are of the most vital interest to him. It is through such gatherings as these that many a community has been aroused to better methods of farming. What can you do to improve soil fertility at the least cost? Let's talk this over together on the 14th and 15th. The body needs a little rest and the mind needs a little stimulus. At Dawson will be the place to do this.

H. W. Dickey, State Organizer of Boys' and Girls' Poultry Clubs, and Dr. Allen, Pure Food Inspector, have been added to the list of speakers. Both are from Lexington and will add a great deal to the interest of the meeting.

County Demonstrator Taylor is extremely anxious that the farmers of Hopkins county come out in large numbers. Mr. I. N. Day is working enthusiastically for the success of this important gathering. He suggests that the people who come bring their lunches along and make it a picnic affair. Let's make this the best meeting of its kind ever held in Hopkins county.

CHAS. H. TAYLOR,
County Demonstrator

MANY DELEGATES TO STATE MEETING

Grand Lodge Meeting U. B. F., Colored,
Meets in Madisonville.

The forty-second annual session of the United Brothers of Friendship, the second annual session of the Sisters of Mysterious Ten and the second Grand Encampment, K. of F., one of the oldest secret societies for colored people in the state, will be held in Madisonville, beginning today and continuing until Friday. Between 600 and 700 delegates are expected to be in attendance. The fair grounds have been rented and the drill maneuvers and meetings will be held there.

Cash prizes amounting to about $800 will be given to the best drilled teams.

T. A. Wynn, P. R. Cabel and J. A. Watson compose the committee on arranging for the meeting and placing the delegates. Quite a number of the delegates arrived yesterday.

First Meeting Monday

The Grand Board of United Brothers of Friendship opened their meeting of the grand board Monday morning at the residence of P. R. Cabel.

A special train from Louisville arrived late yesterday afternoon bringing Knights of Friendship. The Grand Lodge will be called to order at 12 m., at the C. M. E. church. The S. M. T.'s will hold their session at East View Baptist church. The Knights of Friendship will camp at the Fair Grounds. There will be dress parade tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 p. m. through the principal streets of the city. Grand Master W. H. Ballard, of Lexington, will preside at the meeting of the Grand Lodge.

New Line Between Earlington and Madisonville

The Cumberland Telephone people have put in another line between Earlington and Madisonville for the use of business exclusively, and no courting will be allowed on this wire. It is provoking, to say the least, for a business man who pays for his phone and is in a hurry to get a party, at either end of the line, to be told "line's busy" four or five times, and then find out the wire has been held fifteen or twenty minutes by two love-sick kids, asking each other "Whosie Tootsie is Ooo."

A Texas Wonder

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, dissolves gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of bladder troubles, removing gravel, the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for testimonials from Kentucky and other States. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2928 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo. Sold by Druggists.

SCHOOL TAX DUE

School tax for the year 1914 Earlington Graded Common School District, is now due. Please call at the Peoples Bank of Earlington to make payment and obtain receipt.

W. E. DAVES, Treas.
Board of Education.

David Kincheloe

Chosen to succeed Hon. A. O. Stanley for Congress in the second District, Hon. David H. Kincheloe, of Hopkins, the democratic nominee, will be heard from in the halls of the National House. The district is safely democratic, and Mr. Kincheloe's opponent, Judge G. W. Hanson, was the first to congratulate him on his victory. He will probably be the youngest member of the Kentucky delegation, but his reputation as a student and orator will precede him, and it will not be long before he is heard from.—Bowling Green Messenger.

Reasons You Should Attend the State Convention at Ashland, Ky.

August 31st - September 3rd, 1914

1. Ashland is one of the most beautiful cities of Kentucky.
2. Ashland is one of the best industrial cities in the States.
3. Ashland is the gate-way to the Billion Dollar Eastern Empire.

4. This is the first time in the history of the Christian Church that a State Convention has met in Eastern Kentucky.

5. The Ashland Christian Church is a child of the State work and has gone to housekeeping; she wants the old folks to come to see her.

6. The Ashland Christian Church is one of the most beautiful, and one of the best equipped buildings in the State.

7. Our cause is not strong in Eastern Kentucky. We would have you know more about this growing section of the State and we need the inspiration of your presence.

Ashland is located on the Ohio river, in Boyd County, below the mouth of the Big Sandy river. Ashland has a population of ten thousand.

The Christian church has spent much money in Eastern Kentucky. More money is now being spent in the Sixteenth District than in any other District in the state. Yet the church has never held a state convention farther east than Mt. Sterling.

For years the State Board assisted the work at Ashland. At one time $1,000 a year was given to this work. How well that money was spent may be judged by the progress made. With fewer than three hundred members the present building was planned and built and dedicated in December, 1818. The entire plant cost $55,000. On the day of dedication it was necessary to raise $26,000. Over $31,000 was subscribed.

The church building was designed by the same architect who designed the Paris and Winchester churches. It is beautiful in its simplicity and is thoroughly equipped. The main auditorium has a seating capacity of 700 and is equipped with a Moller organ of 24 stops, including the cathedral chimes. The choir is vested.

The Bible School occupies the entire basement and the rear of the building of the floors above. The classes are separated by glass accordian doors. In connection with the basement is a completely furnished kitchen and china closet. During the convention, dinner and supper will be served in the basement at a nominal cost. It will not be necessary for the delegates to leave the building during the day.

The church has its own printing outfit and publishes on its own press a little weekly church paper. The Bible School is well equipped, including a complete moving picture outfit.

The other churches of Ashland have had their conventions but we have never been so honored. The people of Ashland and Eastern Kentucky do not know what a large body of people we are. We need the uplift and benefit your presence will give us, and you may need to know more about the work in this section of the state.

The program this year will be one of the best ever presented to one of our conventions. Many of our best speakers will be heard during the convention. Among the speakers are:

R. M. Hopkins, R. N. Simpson, M. G. Buckner, F. M. Tinder, E. L. Powell, W. N. Briney, J. W. Haglin, J. D. Armistead, W. A. Fite, Prof. E. E. Snoddy, Mrs. Ida Withers Harrison, Mrs. Jno Gay, Mrs. Josephine Siers, Mrs. Mary S. Walden, Prof. J. W. Hatcher, Clyde Darsid, Mrs. L. Campbell, H. W. Carpenter and others. W. E. M. Hackleman will have charge of the music,

The people of Ashland extend to you a most hearty welcome. The homes of the city will be open on the same basis as other conventions. One dollar for lodging and breakfast will be the rate.

Please write Mr. W. A. Manning, 701 E. Winchester Ave., Ashland, Ky., before Aug. 28th, 1914, that he may assign you to a home and advise you before leaving your home. Come even tho' you have not advised Mr. Manning and we will do our best to take care of you.

Upon reaching Ashland go to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, near the O. & O. depot for registration and assignment provided you have not been previously assigned.

NOTICE

The Library and Reading room will be closed in the afternoon until September, but will be open from 7 until 8 in the evening. Interested parties will please be governed accordingly.

One Thousand Moonlight School

1,000 moonlight schools will open their doors to men and women, educated, half educated and illiterate on September 7, 1914; it is estimated by the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission, from the reports received at its office from County Superintendents and teachers. Montgomery, Lincoln, Hardin, Clay, McCreary, Mercer, Grayson, Clinton, Pike, Leslie, Campbell, Kenton and other counties are preparing to make war on illiteracy. September 7, is to be the evening of the opening for Moonlight Schools in the State. It being Labor Day, a canvass of the districts will be made by the teachers on that day to urge men and women to attend.

"1,000 Moonlight Schools to open September 7th. — 50,000 adults enrolled, 10,000 illiterates taught" is the slogan of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission for September.

Coal by Products Will be Utilized in New Way

Salt Lake City, Utah.—For the purpose of demonstrating a new method of which byproducts such as crude petroleum paraffin wax and ammonia, can be taken from coal at small cost, excellent coke made from coal slack and dust and oil secured from oil shale, a testing plate to cost between $10,000 and $15,000 will be erected in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Baker Dead

Mrs. Sarah Davis Baker, one of the oldest ladies of the county, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Fox, in the Crabtree country, last Thursday night, death being due to a complication of diseases. Mrs. Davis was 88 years of age and was well-known throughout the county. Funeral services were held at the family residence Friday afternoon, interment taking place in Odd Fellows cemetery in Madisonville.

President King on the Warpath Against Illiteracy

Hon. W. P. King, President Kentucky Educational Association, has taken the stump in the campaign against illiteracy in Kentucky and will speak at Brooksville, Williamstown, Independence, Winchester, Paris, Alexandria, Covington and several other points during the next few weeks.

Erlington vs. Madisonville

Erlington and Madisonville played a hot game of ball here Sunday afternoon, the score was 8 to 10 in favor of Madisonville. Dawson and Madisonville will cross bats on the Earlington grounds Wednesday and a good game is expected.

HURRYING WORK OF CAR REPAIRS IN RAILROAD SHOPS

War Movement of Grain and Other Things
Puts Stress on Officials

Already the railroads in the eastern part of the United States have felt the effects of the war in Europe, which in a moment almost has caused the car shortage problem, already looming up to assume doubtfully menacing proportions. The announcement that an unusually heavy wheat crop in the West would have to be moved started the wheels moving in repair shops and car foundries and the prospect of a double quick rush of wheat to the Atlantic seaboard for European shipment has had the effect of throwing a scare into the carriers. They are not prepared for the unusual emergency.

A Sufferer For Twelve Months.

Every other had failed; "We had just as soon be without quinine as to be out of Hughes' Chill Tonic. One of the most wonderful cures of chills ever came under my observation. A man suffering for about twelve months from a most obstinate attack of chills and fever tried every remedy that he could hear of, all to no purpose. I persuaded him to try a bottle of Hughes' Tonic, from that time, over twelve months ago, he has not had a chill." Sold by druggists—50c and $1.00 bottles.

The Colonel and the Treaties

When Colonel Roosevelt came to Washington two years ago and appeared before the committee investigating campaign expenses, he turned the plans of Congressmen topsy-turvy. With this recollection in mind, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee is not particularly anxious to have the Colonel appear before it to tell what he knows and thinks about the pending treaties proposing to pay Colombia twenty-five million dollars for the partition of Panama. The Colombian treaty promises to become a great political issue, because it not only carries the suggestion to repudiate the acts of the Roosevelt administration with reference to the independence of the Republic of Panama, but it opens wide the question of continuing the policy of secret sessions of the committee of the Senate in considering treaties. Those Senators who have been making a fight for public hearings upon all questions declares that there is no more interesting matter before the American people than surrounds the affairs of the Colombian and Nicaraguan treaties. Although the Republicans always maintained this policy when they were in power, they are now practically unanimous in criticizing the Democrats for holding executive sessions.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly

The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTYL, 136 Child St., Brooklyn, N. Y., is a valuable medicine for the sickly and weak.

Capes Coat and Pleated Skirt are in Fashion's Foremost Rank

Capes of every description are used and are made of all sorts of materials from linen to broadcloth, and faille silk. These are sometimes lined and sometimes not, often finished merely with a binding of braid, in black or the same color as the cape. The smartest ones are short in front and long in the back with deep collars. Gofine and velvet are also used for these capes and for other wraps this summer. They sound hot, but in reality are light in weight and soft and supple in their texture.

Iching piles provoke profanity and profanity won't remove them. Doan's Ointment is recommended for itching, bleeding or pruritus piles, so as any drug store.

LOW NECK BODICES A SUMMER FEATURE

Many Ruffled Skirts of Lace
With Basques of Colored Taffeta

CAPS AND LINEN BROADCLOTH, GOLFINE

New York, August—The magic name of Newport brings forth visions of society's elite enjoying the pleasures of the ocean breeze and the beach in bathing suits much better suited to the drawing room, except for their length, than to the briny deep. But for all these visions, practical or impractical, Newport is the place to find the ultra smart in summer clothes.

At Bailey's Beach, in the morning, may be seen stunning tailored and outing clothes, and wraps. All white is used a great deal, and yellow in every known shade of the dyer's art. Sleeveless basques in yellow taffeta are worn over white long sleeved guimpes of net or tulle. Some bodices are all white tulle or net with necks cut low in the front with a sailor collar and high crushed girdles of silk to match the color of the skirt.

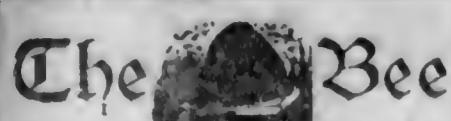

The style of waists which have sash ends attached are very much the rage, as well as the wide vogue for sashes or girdles, which are crushed over the hips and tie in the back. These are worn with skirts having the long tunics or double skirts.

For evening wear black tulle over satin is used extensively. The satin is usually of black or of white, and sometimes colored. A bit of blue or yellow is often used at the belt to give the desired color touch.

Dancing dresses are made of white tulle with pleated ruffles and tunics. Roman striped girdles in light colors, such as light-blue, green, and pink are worn with these dresses. They are tied deep over the hips, with a wraith-like flowing tunic below. These dresses are all very simple, mostly made of some gauzy fabric like chiffon, tulle, net, or organdy, and no lace. Very large flowers are placed in the belt, sometimes being the only color on the costume.

Skirts of the crinoline influence are trimmed with ruffles of lace and have basques of colored taffeta. What would our great grandmothers say to such a combination?

Hopkins County Court

IN THE MATTER OF ESTABLISHMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF EARL-
INGTON GRADED COMMON
SCHOOL DISTRICT—
(Colored)

This being the next regular term of the Hopkins County Court after the receipt and filing herein of the petition of J. W. Bell and eleven other legal voters and tax payers within the city of Earlington, a city of the fifth class in Hopkins County, the said petition coming on for hearing it is now ordered by the Court that the boundary of the proposed Earlington Graded Common School District, colored, be fixed pursuant to the agreement of the County Judge, the petitioners and the County Board of Education of Hopkins County, Kentucky, as follows:

Said proposed district shall comprise and be the same as the territory embraced in the Earlington graded common school district which is identical with the boundaries of former consolidated sub-districts Nos. 45 and 48 the boundaries of each of which are as follows:

Sub-district No. 45 begins at the N. end of S. R. Nishet's lane on the Madisonville and Earlington road; thence E. to the end of his cross lane; thence S. to the fork of the White Plains and Hopkinsville roads; so as to exclude A. J. Sisk's farm; thence with the Hopkinsville road to the crossing of the L. & N. R. R.; thence on a straight line so as to include Elias Oldham's farm and Riffis Oldham's farm; thence to include Sam and Hiram Oldham's farms; thence to the N. W. corner of the survey of the town of Earlington; thence with said line to the N. E. corner; thence to the Thomas Davis' place and to Polk Merrill's place, including them; thence on a straight line to the beginning.

Sub-district No. 48, beginning at the N. E. corner of the corporate line of the town of Earlington; thence to Thos. Davis' place and the Polk Merrill place, excluding them; thence with the meanderings of the Hunting Branch to the Rock Ford or Cloar Creek; thence to the Steve Robinson house; thence to Dook Orifill's; thence to N. W. corner of the corporation line of the town of Earlington; thence to the beginning."

The Sheriff of Hopkins County is directed to open a poll within said proposed graded common school district on Tuesday, September 8th, 1914, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal colored voters in said graded common school district on the proposition whether or not they will vote an annual tax of not exceeding fifty cents on each One Hundred Dollars of property assessed within said proposed common school district belonging to colored voters, and a poll tax of not exceeding $1.50 per capita on each colored male inhabitant over 21 years of age residing in said proposed graded common school district, being both ad valorem and a poll tax, for the purpose of maintaining a common graded school in said proposed graded common school district and for erecting, purchasing and repairing suitable buildings therefor if necessary. The court finds as a fact that the proposition to establish said graded common school district and school has been and is approved in writing on the petition by Paul M. Moore, the trustee of the common school district and the only common school district included within or affected by the boundary of the proposed graded common school district, and has been approved in writing on said petition by the County Superintendent of Common Schools; that the proposed school house in said district is the school house in present use by the Earlington colored school district within the city of Earlington, with the lot upon which the same is situated, the same being located one block west of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad and one block north of Main Street in Earlington, Kentucky.

Claude Morton UNDER TAKER

ky, and that on point of the boundary of said proposed graded common school district is more than 2½ miles from the site of said proposed school house.

It shall be the duty of the County Court Clerk of Hopkins County to give to the Sheriff of said County a certified copy of this order as it appears on the order book, within ten days after the entry thereof, and it shall be the duty of said Sheriff to have this order published in the "Earlington Bee" published at Earlington, Kentucky, for at least 20 days before the election, and also to advertise the same by printed or written hand bills posted at five conspicuous places in said proposed graded common school district for the same length of time, the said notices to be written and posted within ten days after receiving this copy of this order and at least 20 days before said election. Said Sheriff shall appoint a Judge and a Clerk of the said election, who shall take and subscribe an oath for the faithful performance of their duties respectively, on the day set apart for the election said officers shall open a poll and shall propose to each colored voter who shall vote the question "Are you for or against the graded common school tax?" and his vote shall be recorded for or against the same as he may direct. At the same time and place there shall be elected a board of five trustees for said graded common school district by the same persons who vote for the election of the tax, and the five persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected trustees. Said officers of election shall certify to the court the result of said election as soon as the same is ascertained, and this cause is continued.

Copy attest:
JNO. G. SALMON. Clerk.

Notice is hereby given that I, as Sheriff of Hopkins County, Ky., will on Tuesday, September 8, 1914, cause a poll to be opened and an election to be held at the colored public school building in the city of Earlington, Kentucky, for the purposes named in the foregoing judgment and order of the Hopkins Co. Court.

Given under my hand as Sheriff, Hopkins County, Ky., this the 2nd day of July 1914.

TOM LOGAN,
Sheriff Hopkins County.

MANY TEACHERS
ARE IN EUROPE
American Schools and Colleges Will Have to Postpone Opening

New York, Aug. 10.—Causing the greatest consternation among educational authorities, but great joy to young America, the European war threatens to cause a postponement of the opening of schools throughout the country.

Advices received here indicate that hundreds of American school teachers are marooned in France, Germany, England and other European countries now in a state of war. Those in Germany have but small chance of getting out, possibly for months. It is virtually certain that so long as Germany is engaged in war they will not be able to leave, except at the greatest risk.

Colleges also report that scores of professors are among the Americans marooned on the Continent. Columbia and other New York Universities will be seriously hampered unless conditions in Europe soon become more favorable.

The Secret of Lonesome Cove

By
Samuel Hopkins Adams

Copyright, 1912, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

"Yes. All you've got to do is to go and ask for 'em. You won't need me." "Regrettable as his bad taste is," said Kent with a solemn face, "I fear that Dr. Breed doesn't regard me with that confidence and esteem which one reads in illuminated resolutions."

"And you want me as an accelerant, eh?" smiled the lawyer. "All right. It's the Jane Doe permit you're after. I suppose."

"Which?"
"Jane Doe. They buried the corpse from Lonesome Cove under that name. Unidentified dead, you know."

CHAPTER XII.
Loose Ends.

TOGETHER they went to the medical officer's quarters. Dr. Breed had come in fifteen minutes before. Without preliminary Lawyer Bain said:

"I want to see that Jane Doe certified again."

"Aren't you afraid of wearin' out the ink on it, Adam?" retorted the other, with a furtive grin.

"And I," said Chester Kent in his suavest manner, "venture to trouble you to show me the certificate in case of Wilfrid Blair."

Something like a spasm shook the features of Dr. Breed's meager face. "Blair!" he repeated. "How did you know?" He stopped short.

"How did I know that Wilfrid Blair is dead?" Kent finished for him. "Why, there has been time enough, hasn't there?"

The physician's hands clawed nervously at his straggling hair.

"Time enough?" he murmured. "Time enough? I'm only just back from the Blair place myself."

"Ah," commented Kent negligently. "Then he died within two hours or so?"

"This morning," retorted the other. "It's all in the certificate."

"All?" inquired Kent, so significantly that Lawyer Bain gave him a quick look.

"All that's your business or anybody else's," said Breed, recovering himself a bit.

"Doubtless. And I'm to be permitted to see this document?"

Breed pushed a paper across the table. "There it is. I just finished making it out."

"I see," said Kent, giving the paper a scant survey, "that the cause of death is set down as 'cardiac failure.'"

"Well, what's the matter with that?"

"Just a trifle noncommittal, isn't it? You see, we all die of cardiac failure, smiled. "No," said he positively. "—if it's the sickness which you suppose?" inquired Kent.

"There has been a lot of scandal about young Blair, I'm told. Perhaps they're burying him as quietly as possible just to keep out of the papers."

"I shouldn't consider his method of burial likely to prove particularly quiet," returned Kent. "Of course I may be wrong, but I think not. The most private way to get buried is in pell-mell."

"Do you see anything strange about the neck on the left side?"

"Bodily drawn; that's all."

"Just below the ear there is a sort of blankness, isn't there?"

"Why, yes. It seems curiously unfinished just there."

"If you were touching it up how would you correct that?"

"With a slight shading just where the neck muscle should be thrown up a bit by the turn of the head."

"Or by introducing a large pendant earring which the copier has left out?"

"Kent, you're a wonder! That would do it exactly. But why in the name of all that's marvelous should the tracer of this drawing leave out the earring?"

"Obviously to keep the picture as near like as possible to the body on the beach."

"Then you don't think it is the woman of the beach?"

"No; I don't."

"Who else could it possibly be?"

"Perhaps we can best find out by discovering who left the drawing here."

"That looks like something of a job."

"Not very formidable, I think. Suppose we run up to the village and ask the local stationer who has bought my tracing paper there within a day or two."

As the demand for tracing paper in Martindale Center was small, the stationer upon being called on had no difficulty in recalling that Elder Dennett had been in that afternoon and made such a purchase.

"Then he must have discovered something after I left him," said Kent.

"At this moment Sedgwick, who had been studying the picture in the light, made a slight signal with his hand, which did not escape Kent."

"Five dollars is a big price for a rough pencil sketch," said the scientist. "I'd have to know more of the picture to pay that for it. Where did you find it?"

"The original!" said Sedgwick.

"What does Dimmock deal in?"

"All kinds of odds and ends. He scrapes the country for bankrupt sales and has a big auction once a year. Everybody goes. You can find anything from a plow handle to a second hand marriage certificate at his place."

"That record's good enough for the law," declared the medical officer doggedly.

"Who was the attending physician?"

"I was."

"Indeed! And to what undertaker was the permit issued?"

"It was issued to the family. They can turn it over to what undertaker they please."

"Where is the interment to be?"

"Say, looky here, Mr. Man!" cried the physician, breaking into the sudden whirling fury of hard pressed time.

"Are you trying to learn me my business? You can go to the devil! That's what you can do!"

"With your signature on my certificate?" inquired the scientist, unconvincingly.

"I won't trouble you so far, Dr. Breed. I thank you."

Outside in the street, Lawyer Bain turned to his client. "You didn't look at the Jane Doe paper at all."

"No. I'm not so interested in that as in the other."

"Something queer about this Blair death? Not another murder?"

One side of Chester Kent's face smiled. "If it's the sickness which you suppose?" inquired Kent.

"Why, as I remember the woman this picture is a good deal idealized. The hair and the eyes are much the same. But the lines of the face in the picture are finer. The chin and mouth are more delicate, and the whole effect softer and of a higher type."

"Do you see anything strange about the neck on the left side?"

"Bodily drawn; that's all."

THERE comes a time in every woman's life when her organism undergoes an important change. This is a critical period. It is a time when a woman needs her full health and strength. For your own sake you should anticipate this turning point.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The latest in medical science is contained in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—now a revised edition of 1908 pages, only $1. Address Dr. Pierce's Invalid's Hotel, Buffalo.

has been recommended for over forty years as a tonic for women who are about to experience "the turn of life." It is helpful in the equalization of the circulation of the blood and in regulating the action of the bowels. Nervousness and low spirits disappear. Happiness and contentment take their place.
